

Andy Thomson Qualifies For Boca Raton City Council, Seat D

BOCA RATON, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, November 18, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Local community leader and former Boca Raton City Councilman Andy Thomson has officially qualified for the open Boca Raton City Council Seat D. The qualification period ran from November 1 - November 9, 2023.

The qualification period is the set allotment of time the city allows candidates to submit the required paperwork and petitions to have their name placed on the ballot. The seat Thomson qualified for is an open seat.

"I am so grateful for the nearly 350 residents who signed their name on my petition to ensure I qualified for the March election. I love our City and will keep working to preserve our incredible quality of life," Thomson stated.

Thomson qualified with 347 verified petitions collected from Boca Raton voters. The volume of Thomson's petitions – well beyond the 200 required – highlights the passion voters had in ensuring Thomson was on the ballot this March.
