Introducing Roventures: Pioneering Nomadic Community

Guided by Sherese and Jerod, Rove Life pioneers Roventures, a transformative initiative that turns festivals into mobile experiences, reflecting their full-time RV lifestyle. Roventures addresses the challenges nomads face in community building during their travels, uniting temporary residents, local businesses, and the broader community for shared experiences and strengthened community bonds.

Roventures goes beyond exploration, encouraging nomads to connect and actively support the local economies they temporarily inhabit. Envisioning week-long Roventures across the United States, Sherese and Jerod aim to invigorate local economies, create enduring connections, and build a sense of community on the open road.

Merry Campmas Community Crawl: A Week of Unforgettable Experiences

The inaugural Roventures event, Merry Campmas Community Crawl, offers an immersive week filled with diverse activities. Participants are not only welcomed but strongly encouraged to explore Rockport's attractions, shops, and eateries. The ticket includes access to all events, an exclusively crafted t-shirt, and a swag bag, enhancing the participant experience and providing businesses with a platform to engage directly with attendees.

Collaborating with 18 local businesses, the event enriches the community experience, offering participants a taste of Rockport's unique offerings. From fireside gatherings by the bay and craft sessions to visits to local farms and a delightful Victorian soiree, the activities cater to various interests.

To conclude the celebration, Sugar Shack in Fulton will host a six-hour celebration with free food, drinks, live music, giveaways, and games, providing a grand finale to an extraordinary week of community engagement.

VIP Premium Events and Local Business Collaborations: Elevating the Experience

In addition to the general events, the Merry Campmas Community Crawl will feature three exclusive Premium VIP events, ensuring a heightened experience for attendees. With limited availability for only 50 people, these events guarantee an intimate and premium setting. The VIP lineup includes a breakfast at Coastal Oaks RV Resort, an evening of drinks and music at Whiskey
