WOODLAND PARK, CO, UNITED STATES, November 16, 2023 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- The Heart of Christmas production will again be performed in Charis Bible College's 3,500-seat auditorium for an eighth year since 2015. This inspiring, Broadway-style musical brings to life the story of a family who has passed down the fictional tale of the "fourth" wiseman from one generation to the next.

Classic Christmas carols, along with original music by internationally renowned co-producers and co-directors Elizabeth and Robert Muren, support the book's travel in time from the 1940s through present day.

With a semi-professional cast of professional principles joined by college and community actors, this magical Christmas production is appropriate for all ages. The multidimensional effect of live theater is supported by the cinematic effects of digital stage craft, transporting the audience across continents and through history.

Again this year, the Charis Christmas Market returns with community crafters. Whether attending the production or not, the community is invited to visit the hall where local vendors will sell their handcrafted Christmas gifts. This Market is open before and after each performance. Support local artisans by stopping by!
