

Globalscope Holds 2023 Fall Conference in Madrid

Event Draws Largest Attendance in Globalscope History

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM,
November 17, 2023 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- A total of 104 middle-market M&A experts and guests met in Madrid recently for the 2023 Fall Conference of Globalscope Partners Ltd.

Marking the largest conference attendance in Globalscope history, participants representing 41 firms came from 27 different countries and embodied multiple areas of sector expertise.

Globalscope is an international organization of M&A firms specializing in selling, buying, and financing middle-market transactions. Held at the InterContinental Madrid Hotel, the conference included four days of meetings, educational seminars, sector updates, strategic planning, and networking opportunities.

Conference highlights included the addition of one new member firm, Pegasus Capital, a Dublin-based firm specializing in investment banking, private equity, corporate banking, and venture capital. Membership is by invitation only.

David Lawrence, a director of Pegasus, said, "The significant majority of our transactions involve international acquisitions and investors, and Globalscope enables us to expand our global reach and competence in key market segments.

"We look forward to leveraging Globalscope's capabilities to the benefit of our clients in the Irish market," he added.
