LAS VEGAS, NEVADA, UNITED STATES, November 17, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- NaXum achieves another milestone, highlighting their dedication to innovation and excellence in their latest project. Recent achievements underscore the team's relentless commitment to this transformative project.

James Ryan D. Pepito, a UX Designer, meticulously revamped the Links Page interface. The redesign incorporated updated top and side navigation prototypes, ensuring a more streamlined user experience.

Ahmed Bahnasy, an IS Engineer, successfully automated the deletion process of test accounts from live clients' databases. This automation significantly enhanced system efficiency, optimizing operational processes.

As a Commissions Engineer, Mark Vincent Ayo implemented the Edit & Create Prospect feature within the Sales CRM Tool. This addition empowers the sales team by providing a robust tool to manage prospects efficiently.

Abdelrahman Elshorbagii, a Commissions Engineer, played a role in developing the Sales Team Dashboard. This dashboard furnishes the sales team with a comprehensive view of their performance metrics.

Furthermore, Abdelrahman addressed existing concerns by updating Search Filters in the Sales CRM Tool. This enhancement aims to refine the tool's functionality and deliver a more seamless user experience.

These strides exemplify NaXum's ongoing commitment to advancing Project Phoenix, amplifying user experience enhancements, and pushing the industry's innovation boundaries.
