

Concierge Auctions Global Sale Achieves White Glove Result, Live in New York

Gaveling live from The Peninsula in New York, New York, Concierge Auctions global sale achieves nearly $150 million in aggregate bids

Yesterday's auction garnered competitive bidding, strong audience attendance, and resulted in a 100% sell rate.”

Chad Roffers

NEW YORK, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, November 17, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Bidding closed live yesterday evening for Concierge Auctions' global sale of luxury real estate spanning Italy, Spain, and North America. Held at The Peninsula in New York, New York, the evening auction garnered competitive bidding, with nearly $150 million in aggregate bids placed and a white-glove result of 100% of lots sold.

With an audience of more than one hundred in attendance and international participation, property connoisseurs competed online and on the telephone via Concierge Auctions team of specialists. The event was conducted by Concierge Auctions' head auctioneer, Frank Trunzo.

"This year as we've continued conducting live sales, these events have grown to be more and more highly-sought after consignment opportunities for sellers of luxury properties, and we're proud to see another white glove result for our client and their listing agents," said Chad Roffers, CEO of Concierge Auctions. "Yesterday's auction garnered competitive bidding, strong audience attendance, and resulted in a 100% sell rate."

Highlights from the evening auction include a private Mallorcan villa on the Mediterranean bay in Port d'Andratx, Spain and an opulent retreat in Las Vegas' prestigious Southern Highlands Golf Club.
