Angela Cohen, Writer and Director, Virtual Reality Soundbathing Experience

This groundbreaking collaboration between The GlowMedia Project, Charley Bear Productions, and musicians Rami Jaffee and Jessy Greene, is intended to work in tandem with the glowmedia project's library of films. The VR experience, directed by Angela Cohen, will be an easily accessible resource to improve mental wellness. The project will be revealed at the 8th Annual IVRHA Symposium in February 2024.

Musicians Jessy Greene and Rami Jaffee state "We are excited to team up with the glowmedia project and CBP to create this incredible soundbathing experience."

ABOUT THE GLOWMEDIA PROJECT:

Boasting over 1 million views of its thought-provoking films, The glowmedia project produces short films with guides that dispel stigma and debunk misconceptions about mental health for youth, their families, and educators alike.

ABOUT CHARLEY BEAR PRODUCTIONS:

Determined to lead social change, Angela Cohen, the founder of CBP emboldens the female voice through thoughtful and diverse storytelling.

ABOUT THE MUSICIANS:

As musicians touring with the biggest acts in the world for many years (Foo Fighters, P!nk, The Wallflowers), Jessy Greene and multi-Grammy winner, Rami Jaffee, have long recognized the healing powers of music. Many years ago they began studying and composing healing frequencies. They are excited to team up with the glowmedia project and CBP to create this incredible soundbathing experience.
