Under the patronage of Princess Margriet of the Netherlands and Professor Pieter van Vollenhoven, the NAF Ball 2023 Silent Auction took place on Friday, November 17, 2023, showcasing NAF's commitment to initiating and supporting impactful exchanges between the Netherlands and America. The foundation's initiatives include prestigious Fulbright Scholarships and programs in arts, business, public policy, and historic preservation.

The evening kicked off with the Gerard Carelli Orchestra, followed by Karsu Dönmez's unforgettable performance with songs in Turkish, Dutch, and English. The night, sponsored by Corendon Airlines and Corendon Curacao Hotels and Resort, was enhanced with special awards.

Adding a touch of Dutch ambiance, the island of Curaçao, home to Corendon hotels, brought vibrancy to the event. Atilay Uslu, CEO of Corendon Tourism Group and Chair of the NAF Ball, shared his thoughts on the night: "My deep-rooted passion for travel and connecting with people is inherent in my character. Like NAF, my focus lies in nurturing friendships and goodwill. In addition to strengthening ties between America and the Netherlands, I also focus on ties between America and Curaçao, an island with a Dutch flavor."

Reyhan Özgür and his wife, Ceren Özgür, Consul General of the Republic of Turkey in New York, were among the distinguished guests. Biray Ögüt, General Manager of Corendon Curacao, expressed their joy in participating in the night.
