

Medicare's Annual Enrollment Period (AEP) Ends on December 7th

Medicare Expert on How to Evaluate and Select Coverage

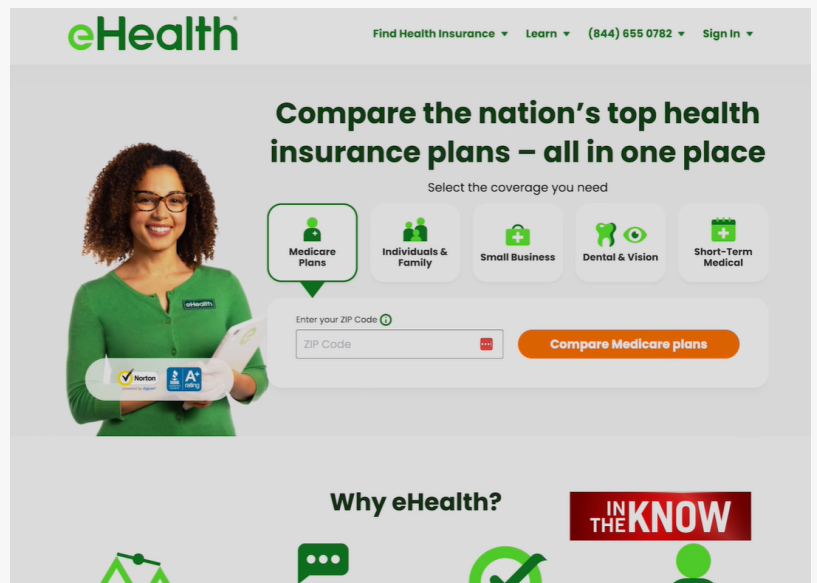

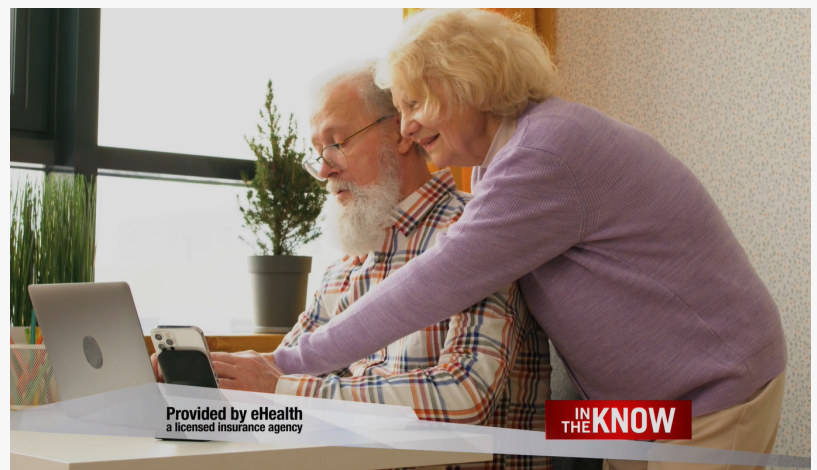

AUSTIN, TEXAS, UNITED STATES,
November 27, 2023 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- There are over 4,000 Medicare Advantage plans to choose from this year. It can be overwhelming, and confusing trying to understand if one needs Parts A, B, C, or D. Often, people must search multiple different websites or call multiple carriers to understand coverage options and compare plans.

With the deadline looming it's easy to make hasty decisions but that can all be avoided with careful planning. Medicare expert Whitney Stidom, CEO of eHealth, can share tips on navigating selection and enrollment coverage. She can also discuss the importance of selecting and enrolling in coverage before December 7th and offer Medicare trend insights.
