TEA PARTY
10TH ANNIVERSARY

*They're Young & Old

They're All-American*

2019 marks the 10th anniversary of the modern-day Tea Party movement. Started by ordinary Americans who were fed up with a government that abuses its citizens through corrupt policy making and the reckless spending of taxpayer money. The Boston Tea Party, a protest in 1773 by colonists who objected to British taxation without representation continues in this modern-day form.

The catalyst for the Modern-Day Tea Party Movement was Rick Santelli in Chicago, Illinois. "The government is promoting bad behavior...We're thinking of having a Chicago Tea Party in July. All you capitalists that want to show up at Lake Michigan, I'm going to start organizing" he screamed from the Chicago Mercantile Exchange (CME) on February 19, 2009. It was time, Rick Santelli said, for another Tea Party. Santelli, a member and commodity trader on the Chicago Mercantile Exchange, Chicago Board of Trade, and a CNBC commentator, sparked the on-going American Revolution called the Tea Party.

The following is a partial list of men and women who are credited for helping to restart and organize the multi-million-member modern Tea Party movement. An affiliation of national and local groups and leaders that hold the US Government responsible to its citizens.
