“This year, 150,000+ press releases were distributed using EIN Presswire. We are so thankful to our valued clients for continuing to select EIN Presswire as their press release distribution service of choice,” said David Rothstein, CEO of Newsmatics Inc., the parent company of EIN Presswire. “Set yourself and your clients up for a prosperous 2024 by taking advantage of our Year End Special. A large component of a business' success is an effective public relations strategy that includes distributing press releases. We are committed to helping even more businesses and nonprofits spread their news and messages in 2024.”

Through a widespread distribution network, EIN Presswire exposes your company to the Associated Press, select ABC, NBC, CBS, and FOX affiliated stations nationwide, and many more news outlets, databases, world media directory, and EIN Presswire's proprietary distribution. Press releases are read by potential customers, clients, investors, and donors nationwide, worldwide, and in niche trades. Each feature-rich press release includes 1,000 words, three links, three embedded images, and one embedded video.

All press release credits expire 12 months from the date of purchase. Existing clients with remaining credits and unused expired credits who take advantage of the Year End Special will be given the courtesy of having these unused credits automatically rolled over into the new expiration date.
