About Impact Health USA

As the President and CEO of Impact Health USA, Joshua Thompson's narrative of resilience and entrepreneurship is truly the heart of the company's success. Raised by a single mother in a low-income household, Joshua dropped out of high school in the 10th grade to work full-time in his grandfather's furniture store. His early experiences in manual labor and running a small moving company laid the foundation for his business acumen.

In his mid-20s, Joshua's path took an unexpected turn when he joined a medical marijuana company that provided medical marijuana certifications in Arizona. Starting as a front desk operator, he quickly learned every facet of the medical office operations, eventually managing staff and assisting with physician hiring. This exposure ignited a realization: he had the knowledge and skills to run a healthcare office.

With entrepreneurial zeal, Joshua established his own medical marijuana doctor's office, starting small but rapidly growing to a lucrative business with seven-figure annual incomes. The COVID-19 pandemic in 2020 was a pivotal moment and, with the shift away from brick-and-mortar operations, Joshua and his team transitioned to providing a variety of healthcare services online, including mental health, hormone therapy, weight loss treatment, and primary care.

Over four years, his Telehealth platform expanded into over 35 states, supporting other entrepreneurs to break into the healthcare space. Impact Health USA was born out of Joshua's vision to empower entrepreneurs across the U.S. to make a significant impact in healthcare while achieving a substantial return on investment.

Today, Impact Health USA stands as a beacon in the Telehealth industry, symbolizing the fusion of healthcare proficiency and entrepreneurial success, driven by Joshua Thompson's visionary leadership and unwavering commitment to accessible healthcare.
