IT Support Accounting Firms

The cloud unlocks tremendous potential for collaboration, mobility, resiliency and analytics using the Microsoft tools accountants already know and love,”

Laurel Fuller, President

In today's rapidly evolving digital landscape, accounting firms in Winter Park face unique challenges in managing vast amounts of sensitive financial data while ensuring compliance with stringent regulatory standards. Recognizing these specific needs, Dytech Group's expanded service offerings are meticulously designed to address the critical aspects of data security, cloud computing, and streamlined IT operations

“We have deep roots in the Winter Park business community, especially working closely with finance and accounting professionals for nearly half a century. That history gives us tremendous insight into their unique needs and pain points when it comes to technology,” said Laurel Fuller, President of Dytech Group. “Now, by combining the power of the Microsoft cloud with our managed IT support services, we've assembled the complete package to be an accounting firm's end-to-end technology partner."

Dytech Group's Microsoft Managed Cloud Services stand at the forefront of this expansion. By leveraging Microsoft's robust cloud infrastructure, these services offer unparalleled flexibility, scalability, and security. Accounting firms can benefit from:

Enhanced Data Security: Safeguarding client information with advanced encryption and cybersecurity measures.

Scalable Storage Solutions: Adaptable cloud storage that grows with the firm's needs, ensuring efficient data management.

Collaboration and Mobility: Seamless access to critical applications and data from anywhere, fostering a collaborative and flexible work environment.

This comprehensive cloud solution empowers Winter Park accounting firms to transition smoothly to a more efficient, secure, and collaborative digital workspace.

Dytech Group will provide a broad array of Microsoft cloud services tailored and pre-configured specifically for the finance vertical including Office 365, Microsoft 365, Teams, OneDrive, Azure hosting services, and more. The company has invested heavily in employing certified Microsoft cloud experts dedicated fully to architecting secure, collaborative cloud platforms for clients.

"The cloud unlocks tremendous potential for collaboration, mobility, resiliency and analytics using the Microsoft tools accountants already know and love," said Fuller, Dytech Group's President. "We handle all setup, management, optimization and change management for these cloud apps so our clients can operate at the cutting edge without needing their own in-house Microsoft experts."
