

Craig Stevens and Genesis 360, LLC Make Economic Impact on Multiple Communities throughout the Southeast Region.

A two-time recipient of the INC 5000 Fastest Growing Company in America, Genesis 360, LLC, creates jobs, empowers communities, and spreads economic success.

BATON ROUGE, LOUISIANA, UNITED STATES, December 7, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Genesis 360, LLC, a two-time recipient of the INC 5000 Fastest Growing Company in America, continues to make a positive economic impact on local communities throughout the Southeast Region of the United States. The company's economic impact is reflected locally through the allocation of the tax dollars contributed, jobs created and supported, and its investments in construction and business operations.

The construction, maintenance and IT company's economic benefits extend beyond mere numbers; they translate into real opportunities to improve communities.

Since 2011, Genesis 360, LLC, has remained committed to the community, helping businesses and residents grow and thrive. "Creating an impact wherever we work is our priority. We are more than a comprehensive business solutions company. When we impact people's lives, we change the community around us. That's how we can change the world for a better place. That's what life is all about. We take pride in improving lives, communities, and the world," said Craig Stevens, founder and president of Genesis, 360, LLC. "Our goal is to bless our employees by offering a caring, stable, and fun work environment. We maintain a dependable, high-performing vendor network and achieve all this while staying true to our values: integrity first, service before self, and excellence in all we do. Our vision is to become the preferred workplace for those who want to achieve more in life and do not mind working for it!"

In the past decade, Genesis 360, LLC, expanded into four divisions: construction, ground maintenance, building maintenance, and IT services, providing jobs and opportunities. "Our company's mission is to add value to our worldwide network of customers by providing all-inclusive Maintenance, Construction & IT Services, allowing the customer to focus on their core business," Stevens added. "We strive to be the Amazon of construction."

While doing construction work on the Morganza Spillway for the United States Army Corps of Engineers, Stevens realized how the work Genesis, 360, LLC, was doing was impacting lives. "One Friday, while I was distributing pay, I remember as I handed a check to one of my lead truckers, she immediately called her son, who was attending Southeastern University, and said, 'I've got your tuition money'. That helped me understand the impact of providing jobs in our community," he said

When we impact people's lives, we change the community around us. That's how we can change the world for a better place. That's what life is all about."
