Cam Allen is a freaking rockstar!”

Duane Hobson, Associate Director of Nashville Membership ASCAP

Prepare to be immersed in the heart of genuine country music as Cam's evocative lyrics transport listeners through memories, heartbreak, and the solace found in the comforting embrace of a dive bar, where you're not the only broken-hearted lover drinking alone. "Dive Bar" is not just a song; it's a narrative that draws inspiration from the dimly lit, unpretentious local establishments that serve as havens for those seeking comfort.

“This is the first project we have worked on in Nashville, teaming up with some of music's best folks I've had the pleasure of meeting,” reminisced Cam. “I'm really looking forward to sharing it with y'all. It's something I'm genuinely proud of and can't wait for everyone to hear.”

Country music's newest breakup ballad "Dive Bar" features songwriting contributions from Cam Allen, his band members (guitarists Zander Silva and William Murray) and Ryan Follesé – a talented songwriter celebrated for hits including "Tonight Tonight," which achieved worldwide double platinum status in 2011. With production helmed by three-time Grammy award-winning music icon Kenny Greenberg, this dynamic partnership promises to deliver a musical experience that transcends boundaries and resonates with audiences far and wide. Greenberg adds Allen to his long list of collaborations, which includes a diverse range of artists such as Taylor Swift, Amy Grant, Willie Nelson, Wynonna Judd and Brooks & Dunn.

Earlier this fall, Cam was announced as one of eight songwriters selected for the 11th annual ASCAP Guidance from Publishers for Songwriters (GPS) Project. Directed by Duane Hobson, Associate Director of Nashville Membership, the ASCAP GPS Project identifies rising, unsigned songwriters who are poised for the next big leap in their career. These writers are then paired with publishers who serve as mentors to help them refine and perfect their craft. Notable program graduates include Lainey Wilson, Jacob Davis, Hannah Dasher and more.

Duane Hobson remarked, "Cam Allen is a freaking rockstar! His artistry and energy that he gives in his music makes me proud that he's an ASCAP member and that he's a part of the ASCAP GPS program."

Preview the tearjerking lyrics below:

"I can't hear sad songs on the radio
No three chord cover band singing 'bout letting go
Like a smoke ring it goes round and round in my head again
Bartender give me something to get me past 2 a.m.

And that's why they call it a dive bar
Head first drowning in your memory
Ain't enough loving in the whiskey to get me gettin' over you"
