

Wags and Walks Dog Rescue Saves Injured Puppies One Paw at a Time

This GivingTuesday, Wags and Walks Dog Rescue Focuses Efforts to Raise Much Need Funds for Dogs in Need of Medical Attention.

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, November 27, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Wags and Walks, a beacon of hope for ill or injured dogs in need, is gearing up for a special mission this GivingTuesday. On November 28, 2023, they will shine a spotlight on the urgent need for funding to provide lifesaving medical care to dogs facing dire circumstances.

Supporting us on GivingTuesday will mean a lifeline for these innocent dogs, giving them the love and medical attention they deserve, while transforming their new families lives”

Lesley Brog, Founder and CEO

Recently, Wags and Walks saved four innocent 10 month old pittie puppies, now affectionately known as Flannel, Mittens, Socks, and Boots, who were in a state of unimaginable distress. These brave puppies bore the scars of a tumultuous life. Deep lacerations, ripped ears, and bite marks painted a grim picture, while the presence of parasites, fever, and life-threatening mange underscored the uphill battle they faced for survival.

This GivingTuesday, Wags and Walks extends an impassioned call to action. Every contribution will directly fuel their mission to provide essential medical support, offering a chance at a new beginning for dogs like Flannel, Mittens, Socks, and Boots. Through generous donations, they can secure critical treatments and ensure these precious beings embark on a journey toward health and happiness.

"Supporting us on GivingTuesday will mean a lifeline for these innocent dogs, giving them the love and medical attention they deserve while transforming the lives of the dogs and their new families," says Lesley Brog, Founder and CEO.

As Wags and Walks rallies for change this GivingTuesday, join hands with them in rewriting the narratives of resilience for these remarkable pups. Together, let's create a world where every wag and wiggle signifies a triumph over adversity.
