Fiskl's accounting tech innovation has been celebrated for its transformative impact on small business accounting globally. Its AI-driven capabilities automate complex financial tasks such as categorization and reconciliation, allowing business owners to manage finances intuitively without deep accounting knowledge. Fiskl's advanced AI tech stack represents a significant leap forward in financial technology, enabling small businesses to achieve unprecedented levels of efficiency and accuracy.

Fiskl's success over the past year is marked by its extensive global user base, key partnerships with banking and payment industry giants, and prestigious accolades such as the Fintech of the Year at the prestigious Europas Awards and Europe Fintech Awards 2023 for Accounting Tech of the Year.

"Being named to Fast Company's prestigious list is a testament to Fiskl's innovative spirit and our commitment to driving the FinTech industry forward," said Alina Lapusneanu, CEO of Fiskl Limited. "Our dedication to harnessing the power of AI for financial management is reshaping how small businesses approach their finances, offering them a competitive edge in a rapidly evolving economic landscape."

"The Next Big Things in Tech is not just a look around the corner—it's a look around the corner after that," says Brendan Vaughan, editor-in-chief of Fast Company. "These are the products and ideas that will define technological innovation for the rest of this decade and beyond—and solve some of the world's most pressing issues. We are thrilled to honor the organizations that are making them a reality."
