The Choir of Clare College

Since the founding of its mixed-voice ensemble in 1972, the Choir of Clare College has been considered among the world's leading university choirs. It has been praised for its consistently 'thrilling' and 'outstanding' performances worldwide. Recent engagements include performances with the London Philharmonic Orchestra, and Orquesta Sinfónica Nacional de México, as well as recitals in Barcelona's Palau de Musica, El Escorial Madrid, St. John's Smith Square London, and across the USA and Canada. In addition to live performances, the Choir has produced an impressive discography of more than forty recordings.
