

Wine Country Network Announces 2023 Tequila Mezcal Challenge Awards

Wine Country Network, Inc., publishers of Wine Country International® Magazine, announced winners of the 2023 Tequila Mezcal Challenge.

BROOMFIELD, COLORADO, UNITED STATES, November 29, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Fifth Annual Competition Recognizes Excellence in Agave Spirits Category.

Wine Country Network, Inc., publishers of Wine Country International® Magazine and a global leader in producing professional beverage competitions, has announced the winners of the 2023 Tequila Mezcal Challenge.

This year's "Best of Show" winners were selected from the highest-scored products and retested by the judging committee:

"BEST OF SHOW" 2023 WINNERS:

- Dona Loca Tobala Mezcal Ancestral - 1st Place
- Gran Coramino Anejo - 2nd Place
- Cierto Tequila Private Collection Blanco - 3rd Place

Christopher J. Davies, CEO and competition director, commented, "When we launched the Tequila Mezcal Challenge, we aimed to raise the bar for these rapidly evolving spirits, with many new brands launching almost weekly. Our competition committee has created the first professional spirits competition dedicated to over 60 categories of tequila, mezcal, and agave spirits."

The Tequila Mezcal Challenge welcomes entries from artisanal producers (5,000 bottles or less) and commercial bottlers. The judging team comprises some of the world's most seasoned tequila and mezcal experts. They understand and respect the work that goes into the entire production process.

Packaging and design are critical components of sales and marketing in the beverage industry. The contest also conducts a packaging and design competition, juried by art directors and marketing mavens who will judge how your product design stands out in this crowded category.

2023 Package Design Contest Winners:

- Casa Obsidiana - "Best of Show" Bottle Series Design
- Emyla Tequila Anejo-Single Bottle Design - Gold Medal
- Un Momento-Bottle Series-Silver Medal
