

Jayden Daniels wins the 2023 Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award

LSU Tiger wins 2023 Golden Arm Award

BALTIMORE, MARYLAND, USA, November 30, 2023 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Jayden Daniels has won the 2023 Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, presented annually by the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Educational Foundation, Inc. and A. O. Smith Corporation to the nation's top quarterback who best exemplifies character, scholastic and athletic achievement. Daniels is the second LSU Tiger to win this celebrated award.

Playing one of the most impressive seasons of college football, the California native tops the statistical charts across the country for total yards thrown, deep throws and notable runs. Daniels is the only quarterback in FBS history with 12,000 passing yards and 3,000 rushing yards in a career and 350 passing yards and 200 rushing yards in a game. The Tiger would set the NCAA record for passer efficiency in a single season, accounting for 50 touchdowns, coming up just 54 shy of 5,000 total yards. The 22-year-old is one of only 18 players in LSU history to rush for 2,000 yards in a career (2,019) and he holds the LSU record for rushing yards by a quarterback for a career and season (1,134 in 2023).
