/EINPresswire.com/ -- Fitness Factory Health Club welcomes aspiring entrepreneurs in the fitness and wellness industry to explore franchising opportunities as they open yet another newly renovated 2-floor unique location in the heart of West New York, NJ.

Jonathan O'Donnell, the passionate franchisee behind the newly renovated location, celebrated the Grand Opening of Fitness Factory West New York with local residents. The atmosphere was filled with music that kept the energy levels high and a clown that entertained guests by performing magic tricks and facepainting children. The event was attended by Co-Founder and Franchisor of Fitness Factory Health Club, Dennis Cieri, and Director of Franchise Development, Lindsey King, who also brought their children to celebrate the fun.
