

Giggster Introduces PayPal Payment Options for Location Rentals

SANTA MONICA, CA, UNITED STATES, December 1, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Giggster, the leading online platform for unique location rentals, is excited to announce a major enhancement to its booking process with the integration of PayPal and the PayPal Pay Later option. This development offers users a broader range of payment choices, including the convenience of paying over time.

About Giggster:

Giggster is the go-to platform for individuals and businesses seeking extraordinary venues for production, events, and creative projects.

Key Highlights of the Giggster-PayPal Integration:

Enhanced Payment Flexibility: Giggster users can now complete their location rental payments using PayPal, providing them with a secure and widely recognized payment method.

Pay Later Option: The integration also introduces the PayPal Pay Later option, giving users the ability to pay for their location rentals over time, making it more accessible and convenient.

"We are thrilled to introduce PayPal and the PayPal Pay Later option within our booking flow," said Tyler Quiel, CEO of Giggster. "This integration is a testament to our commitment to providing users with a seamless and flexible booking experience, catering to a variety of payment preferences."

PayPal is a trusted and widely used payment platform that allows users to securely complete transactions online. The introduction of PayPal and the Pay Later option further expands Giggster's commitment to meeting the diverse needs of its user base.

This enhancement marks a significant step forward for Giggster, as it continues to innovate and provide more choices to its users, ensuring a smoother and more convenient location booking experience.
