Growth of the market is fostered by factors such as increased hectic lifestyles, rise in wellness tourism, surge in demand from teenagers, and improved standards of living.

Moreover, increase in population of working women and rise in popularity of spa among male customers have supplemented the growth of global spa services market. However, scarce availability of skilled labor and lesser penetration in underdeveloped regions limit the market growth to a certain extent. Furthermore, the cost of employing skilled labor in the global spa services market is high, thereby adding to the operation costs incurred by the firms.

The salon spa segment accounted for the largest market share of around 37.3% in 2020. Increase in disposable income among the middle-income class, affordable services, and innovative marketing strategies used by salons contribute to the growth of this segment. However, the highest CAGR of 17.7% is expected to be witnessed by the medical spa segment during the forecast period. Technological advancement in medical treatments such as laser technology, dermal fillers, cellfina, ultra therapy, and others drive the demand for medical spa. Hotel spa and destination spa are anticipated to witness notable growth during the forecast period, owing to massive investments in tourism infrastructure in Asia and Middle East.

The global spa services market was dominated by Europe in 2020, owing to higher demand in Western European countries such as Germany, France, UK, and others. In addition, extensive demand arising from Eastern Europe countries due to rise in income of middle class customer groups has contributed significantly to the market. Moreover, Europe has greater number of established spas among other region. Asia-Pacific is the second largest region in the global spa services market owing to huge contribution by countries such as Japan and China, which are highly concentrated with mineral spa.

LAMEA region is expected to witness the fastest growth of 17.6% during the forecast period; owing to rise in investments in tourism industry in countries such as Brazil and UAE. The tourism sector in Brazil has attained more proficiency and professionalism posing huge avenues for the global spa services market to expand in future. Moreover, urbanization and increasingly hectic work lifestyle are expected to continue to foster the demand for the market during the analysis period.

Destination spa has also gained considerable popularity owing to rise in demand for traditional spas such as Ayurveda, Swedish, and Turkish massage. Growth in inbound & outbound tourism for the purpose of wellness drives the growth of destination spa service market.

Key companies profiled in this report include Four Seasons Hotel Limited, Emirates Palace, Trailhead Spa, Jade Mountain Resort, Massage Envy Franchise LLC, Six Senses Hotels Resorts Spas, Clarins Day Spa, Belmond Maroma Resort & Spa, Lanserhof Tegernsee Spa, and Gaia Retreat & Spa.
