This is the fourth successful acquisition for AccuSourceHR in 24 months. With the addition of Five Diamond, the combined organization now serves over 6,500 customers with significant strength in the healthcare, staffing, government, education, transportation, manufacturing, and hospitality and entertainment industries.

"We're excited to build upon our existing client base in the travel, tourism, and leisure markets," said Mr. Filby. "Five Diamond has established long-term client relationships through its dedication in providing fast, reliable screening services. Their highly experienced, service-minded team of professionals are great fit for our established workforce and will further support our goals in extending our leadership through innovation, industry-specific expertise and best-in-class client support."

AccuSourceHR remains actively engaged in identifying additional investment opportunities in the background screening and the broader tech-enabled HR services market.
