

UNH Franklin Pierce School of Law Hosts Leading Voices in Legal Education at Annual UNH Law Review Symposium

One-day live and streaming event focusing on risk-taking and reform in legal education

CONCORD, NH, UNITED STATES,
December 12, 2023 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- On January 26, University of New Hampshire (UNH) Law Review hosts its annual Symposium online and in-person at UNH Franklin Pierce's main building located at 2 White Street. The Symposium will at 1:30 p.m., with registration beginning at 1:00 p.m. The event will end at 5:30 p.m. with the Alumni Winter Party event following, which guests are encouraged to attend. Hosting a mix of panels and lectures, the Symposium will focus on risk taking and reform in legal education featuring a dozen speakers including legal educators, persons from the American Bar Association, and persons from the Law School Admissions Council. Among other issues, the Symposium will touch upon current changes in legal education with its influences on the legal profession and recommendations for reform to further evolve the field starting in the classroom – in the home of the first ABA-certified Hybrid J.D. Program.

Speakers include:

- William Adams, Jr., Managing Director, Section of Legal Education and Admissions to the Bar, American Bar Association
- Sara Berman, Director of Academic Success Program & Professor of Lawyering Skills, USC Gould School of Law
- Greg Brandes, COO & CFO, Monterey College of Law
- Megan Carpenter, Dean of UNH Franklin Pierce School of Law
- Michael Conklin, Professor of Law, Angelo State University

"The University of New Hampshire Franklin Pierce School of Law has a unique voice as the home of the first ABA-accredited hybrid J.D. program, making dedicating the Law School's annual law review symposium to the theme of 'Risk Taking and Reform in Legal Education' as a natural fit," said Mariah Thomas Thurston, Symposium Editor of University of New Hampshire Law Review. "This Symposium will bring together distinguished guests to discuss a wide range of current and proposed reforms in legal education that will influence incoming legal scholars and the legal profession as a whole. It is our hope that students, scholars, and members of the public will find this to be an informative and engaging event."
