

VARStreet's seamless integration with Avalara sales tax software is now available for Canadian Resellers

VARStreet Inc. unveils available integration with Avalara sales tax software for Canadian resellers.

BURLINGTON, MASSACHUSETTS, UNITED STATES, December 5, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- VARStreet Inc. is a premier provider of cloud-based business management software for IT and office supplies VARs in the United States and Canada. Its eCommerce platform connects with 50+ Distributors for catalog, price, and inventory, making it the #1 choice for VARs looking to set up an online store. It also comes with a robust quoting and CRM platform at the back end, and hence provides a holistic business management platform for VARs in the U.S. & Canada.

An increasing number of VARStreet's Canadian customers use Avalara as their taxation partner. Keeping this in mind, the availability of Avalara integration to Canadian customers will add immense value to VARStreet's business management software.

VARStreet-Avalara integration was already available to U.S. customers and is now extended to Canadian customers as well. With this integration, Canadian customers can automate their tax compliance processes. The integration provides Canadian customers with real-time updates on tax regulations and changes, ensuring that they are always in compliance with the latest tax laws.

With this integration, sales tax can be automatically calculated while generating a quote or a sales order in VARStreet's quoting software. The same is also available on their eCommerce stores for carts and can be applied to the customer invoices too. This will allow Canadian customers to focus on their core business activities without any need to handle the burden of
