MIAMI, FL, USA, December 5, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- This year, the LLYC Foundation's Future Voices program helped almost 600 young people, nearly doubling last year's numbers. Focused on improving the lives of youth at risk of social exclusion through in-person communications and soft skills training, Future Voices brought together over 120 LLYC volunteers with 15 social organizations across 12 countries, including Fundación MIRA USA in Miami, Florida.

"We're immensely proud of Future Voices, which is one of our most impactful initiatives," said Maria Cura, President of the LLYC Foundation. "Through this project, we highlight communication's significance to social change and teach the next generation how to use cutting-edge digital and communication tools. Our goal is to give underprivileged youth resources to help them overcome the challenges they face and transform their futures."

Since its launch, Future Voices has worked with 49 national and international organizations to help almost 1,400 young people worldwide. In the four times the program has run, over 400 LLYC employees have volunteered their time to help young people in vulnerable situations change their lives.

"The dedication our partner organizations and LLYC professionals have shown has allowed this program to become a resounding success," Cura added. "We would like to express our gratitude to all those who have put so much effort into Future Voices, helping us foster positive change for a brighter future."

In addition to Fundación MIRA USA, Future Voices worked with Fundación Cimientos (Argentina), Noix por Noix (Brazil), Fundación Cerro Navía Joven (Chile), Fundación Alquería Cavelier (Colombia), Academia La Javilla (Dominican Republic), Fundación Nuestros Jóvenes (Ecuador), Fundación EDUCA (Mexico), Kantaya (Peru), Fundación TAC (Panama), Associação Raízes (Portugal), Fundación Exit (Spain), Fundación Iter (Spain), and Fundación Plaza de los Oficios (Spain).
