

Transworld Business Advisors of Eastern North Carolina Present to Leadership Conference

Business Brokers, Sean Rollins & Tony Khoury, present at East Carolina University

GREENVILLE, NC, UNITED STATES, December 5, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- East Carolina University held its 2023 Business Leadership Conference in October, bringing in several local entrepreneurs and professionals to speak to over 1,500 business students. This conference helps to prepare students for the realities of the business world in a professional conference environment and provides opportunities to interact with ECU's Business Advisory Council members, esteemed alumni, employers, and community members. The event complements the intensive leadership preparation that students receive during enrollment in the business program.

Interacting with business leaders such as Tony and Sean is one of the ways our students discover career paths and lessons learned along the way, which in turn will make them better leaders.”

ECU Interim Dean, Mike Harris

Senior Business Broker, Sean Rollins, volunteers for East Carolina University's Entrepreneurs In Residence (EIR) program where he provides expertise, mentorship, and guidance to the Miller School of Entrepreneurship students. He helps support classes, programs, and the Miller School of Entrepreneurship, as a whole. Sean was invited through this program to present at the 2023 College of Business Leadership Conference, along with President and Managing Director, Tony Khoury.

“The annual COB (College of Business) Leadership Conference prepares our students for the realities of the business world in a professional environment. It provides opportunities to interact with esteemed alumni, employers, and community members,” states ECU Interim Dean, Mike Harris. “Interacting with business leaders such as Tony and Sean is one of the ways our students discover career paths and lessons learned along the way, which in turn will make them better leaders.”

Sean and Tony both have a passion for helping our Eastern NC community and educating young professionals on all their options post grad.
