

Cincinnati, Ohio Warsaw Federal Bank now a Minority Depository Institution

CINCINNATI, OHIO, USA, December 5, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Warsaw Federal Savings & Loan (Warsaw Federal), an independent mutual bank affiliated with First Mutual Holding Co., has served the residents and community of East Price Hill for 130 years. Now, the community bank is hitting a new milestone: becoming Cincinnati's first Minority Depository Institution (MDI).

The Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC) designated Warsaw Federal as an MDI. An MDI is a community-based bank that provides enhanced financial services, tools, and education to promote economic opportunity and financial equity and help community members invest in the community's success.

Warsaw Federal customers will continue to receive the full banking services and customer support they have come to expect, with the addition of focused deposit and lending financial products and enhanced tools and resources. Customers and the community will benefit from Warsaw's deepened commitment to the economic vitality of the community.

MDIs are an impactful tool in breaking the generational poverty cycle and offering opportunity for economic equality for all those in the communities we serve.”

According to newly appointed Warsaw Federal President & CEO Robie K. Suggs, “MDIs not only provide customers expanded access to the unique financial resources they need but also the chance to invest in our community's success and wellbeing. MDIs are an impactful tool in breaking the generational poverty cycle and offering opportunity for economic equality for all those in the communities we serve.”

"We are proud of this significant progress in our journey toward inclusivity and community empowerment. This strategic move reinforces our commitment to fostering economic growth, promoting diversity, and supporting the financial needs of our community," said David Evans, Chair of the Warsaw Federal Board of Directors. "The previous Warsaw Board, including former Board Chair Richard Flynn, envisioned how the work of Warsaw Federal could be even more impactful to the community as an MDI. We appreciate those efforts, including identifying a strong new majority-minority Board to support our MDI status."
