-- Biblionix, a leading provider of cloud-based library management systems, today announced the availability of its Artemis library automation software for schools. Artemis is a powerful and easy-to-use solution that provides schools with similar high-end tools used in Apollo public libraries, plus incredible customer support from a team of experts.

"We are excited to offer Artemis for schools," said Dick Moeller, spokesperson for Biblionix. "Artemis is a cloud-based library automation system that is easy to use, affordable, and packed with features that will help schools manage their libraries more effectively."

With Artemis, students get access to a state-of-the-art catalog, while librarians use a world-class dashboard. Artemis offers a variety of timesaving, error-preventing features and third-party integrations. It is also easy to set up and use, with no need to install any software.

Key Features of Artemis

- Easy-to-use catalog for students
- World-class dashboard for librarians
- Timesaving, error-preventing features
- Third-party integrations
- Effortless browser setup

For schools eager to experience the transformative power of Artemis, Biblionix offers a valuable free trial. This trial showcases timesaving features and seamless third-party integrations, reinforcing the company's commitment to enhancing the educational journey.
