Jared Isaacman is a panelist on the Commercial/Private Spaceflight Discussion on Wednesday, Dec. 13th.

WASHINGTON, DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, UNITED STATES, December 6, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Space Force Association's (SFA) Spacepower Conference, held in Orlando, Florida, on Dec, 12-13, is a forum for discussing and demonstrating military as well as civilian private business capabilities and solutions to today's issues regarding space. The SFA Conference will host discussions about urgent national and global challenges in the future of space. The conference is a call to attendees to become integral to the ongoing space dialogue.

Jared Isaacman ,Commander, Polaris Dawn

I am thrilled to gather with the best and brightest space minds from public and private sectors at the inaugural SFA Spacepower Conference.”

Jared Isaacman

Over 2,000 participants are expected to attend, including Guardians, military leaders, private sector voices, industry innovators, commercial astronauts, and media.

The distinguished participants include Jared Isaacman, a visionary entrepreneur, successful business leader, and accomplished pilot and astronaut. Isaacman has significantly contributed to the financial technology, defense, and aerospace industries. As the founder and CEO of Shift4 (NYSE: FOUR), and founder of Draken

International, he has spearheaded numerous advancements in commerce technology and national defense strategies.

Isaacman is a panelist on the Commercial/Private Spaceflight Discussion on Wednesday, Dec. 13. Additional esteemed panel members include Maj. Gen. Stephen G. Purdy, Jr., Military Deputy, Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Air Force for Space Acquisition and Integration; and Michael Hopkins, Col. USSF and NASA astronaut.

Isaacman is an accomplished pilot with over 7,500 hours in aircraft ranging from commercial to fighter jets. In 2021, he made history by commanding Inspiration4, the world's first all-civilian mission to orbit. The SpaceX mission was named Inspiration4 to reflect the crew's goal of inspiring support for St. Jude Children's Research Hospital® and send a humanitarian message of possibility. Inspiration4 represented a new era for human spaceflight and raised over $250 million for St. Jude.

Isaacman will be presented with the Advancing Human Presence in the Space Domain award at the Space Force Association Awards Dinner held during the SFA Spacepower Conference. "I am thrilled to gather with the best and brightest space minds from public and private sectors at the inaugural SFA Spacepower Conference," said Isaacman. "I'm humbled to accept the Advancing Human Presence in the Space Domain award on behalf of all who let their imaginations soar to discover not only what is possible, but also create what is yet to come," said Isaacman.

The Space Force Association Inaugural Spacepower Awards Dinner is sponsored by Viasat and takes place on December 13th, 2023 at the Renaissance Orlando at Sea World.
