Covid-19 Scenario:

The outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic had a notable impact on the credit card issuance services market. This is due to lockdowns imposed by many countries in response to the rapid spread of the COVID-19 virus which impacted activities in banking and many other industries. Rise in pay delays & job losses and decline in borrowing credit by individuals to cover their daily expenses also impacted the growth of the market.

Moreover, customers stopped taking new credit cards and focused on paying off their debts. This was due to the huge loss of jobs and lockdown by the government of respective countries
