

Microtech's Small Business Tech Week Prepares Law Firms for Upcoming Technological Shifts

Microtech hosts Small Business Tech Week from Dec 11-14 to gear up law firms for tech shifts with top speakers, free insights & tools for legal industry growth.

BOCA RATON, FL, USA, December 7, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- As the legal industry balances on the tip of major technological changes, Microtech Computer Services' second annual Small Business Tech Week is recognized as the key virtual event to launch law firms into the new era of technology, cybersecurity, and AI. This free online event, scheduled from December 11-14, 2023, is dedicated to empowering small to medium-sized law firms with the technological infrastructure required for a successful future.

Young, Berman, Karpf & Karpf, P.A. (YBK&K), renowned for their progressive use of legal technology, has announced their participation in Microtech's event. "We learned that incredibly valuable knowledge was provided at last year's event, and such knowledge is critical to our approach in adopting technology. We are excited to discover what new opportunities this year presents," said Erica Buckius, a paralegal at YBK&K. "Staying ahead of the curve in technology is not optional, it's vital for legal practitioners."
