Glenora Distillery, the celebrated Canadian distillery nestled in the captivating Cape Breton Highlands of Nova Scotia, proudly announces its remarkable achievement of winning the prestigious Best In Show award in the North American Single Malt Whisky category at the 2023 L.A. Spirits Awards.

The L.A. Spirits Awards, renowned for its discerning recognition of excellence in the spirits industry, has bestowed this coveted honour upon Glenora Distillery for its exceptional 19 Year Old Single Malt Whisky. This accolade serves as a resounding testament to the distillery's unwavering commitment to quality, masterful craftsmanship, and the timeless art of whisky-making.

Glenora Distillery's unwavering pursuit of excellence finds its deepest roots in its rich heritage and the awe-inspiring landscapes of the Cape Breton Highlands in Nova Scotia, Canada. Drawing inspiration from the time-honoured traditions of Scottish whisky-making, the distillery proudly employs authentic Scottish stills from Scotland, dedicating itself wholeheartedly to the cherished craft's traditions. This unique fusion seamlessly marries Old World charm with New World innovation, firmly establishing Glenora Distillery as a shining beacon of whisky craftsmanship in North America.

About Glen Breton Rare 19 Year Single Malt Whisky

Embark on a sensory journey with Glen Breton Rare 19-Year-Old, a distinguished single malt whisky that encapsulates the essence of craftsmanship and tradition. As part of our exclusive range, this whisky stands out with its maturity and depth, having been aged for 19 years in hand-picked American oak casks. These casks impart a rich complexity and an unparalleled smoothness to the spirit.

A Nose that Invites and Intrigues:

The first encounter with Glen Breton Rare is a bouquet of aromatic indulgence. It greets you with a harmonious blend of orange zest, pine freshness, and the sweetness of honey.

Complementing these are notes of oil and brine, intertwined with a subtle hint of smoke - a nod to the traditional methods of whisky-making.

Palate: A Rich Tapestry of Flavors:

As you savour Glen Breton Rare, your palate is enveloped in a warm richness. The robust flavours of pepper and cedar wood meld beautifully with the refreshing zest of lemon.

Undertones of hazelnut and maple add a layer of complexity, making every sip a discovery of new tastes.

Finish: Smooth, Long, and Memorable:

The finish of Glen Breton Rare is as impressive as its beginning. It leaves a long, smooth impression, inviting you to ponder the intricate blend of flavours that have just graced your palate.

Awards and Recognition:

Glen Breton 19 Rare Single Malt Whisky is a celebrated masterpiece. It has been honoured as the Best North American Single Malt Whisky at the LA Spirits Awards and has earned a Bronze Medal at the 2021 New York International Spirits Competition. These accolades are a testament to its superb flavour profile and exceptional quality.

Enjoyment:

To fully appreciate the exquisite character of Glen Breton Rare, we recommend enjoying it neat. This allows the complex interplay of flavours and aromas to shine through, offering a truly authentic and luxurious whisky experience.

Whether you're a whisky connoisseur or a newcomer to the world of single malts, Glen Breton Rare 19-Year-Old is a bottle that deserves a place in your collection. It's not just a drink; it's an experience to be cherished.
