

Landmaster Adds New Industry Pro Dealership, Voss Equipment, Inc.

American made UTV manufacturer partners with the lead provider in material handling equipment solutions.

COLUMBIA CITY, IN, USA, December 12, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Industry Pro, Landmaster's commercial utility vehicle line, announces their new partnership with Voss Equipment, Inc. Voss Equipment will now offer the full lineup of Industry Pro UTVs to their customers in the surrounding areas of Chicago, IL.

The Industry Pro UTVs consist of both gas and electric (lithium) options that come standard with safety work-focused accessories. The models come with heavy duty suspension, commercial-grade engines, and capabilities of hauling up to 1,000 lbs.

"At Voss Equipment, our mission is to help businesses achieve their operational goals by providing them with reliable, top-quality equipment solutions. By adding the Industry Pro UTVs we're able to provide our customers with a quality made, American made utility vehicle solution." said Pete Voss III, President of Voss Equipment, Inc. "We pride ourselves on building long-lasting relationships with our customers and providing them with the exceptional service they deserve."
