About the Product:

"It's a Wrap" (<https://www.theloveofpeople.com/product-page/foam-it-s-a-wrap>) isn't merely a styling foam; it's a versatile solution designed to enhance curly hair care routine. Crafted with precision and care, this natural foam serves as more than a styling product – it aids in promoting hair growth. It is a natural solution for frizz control and flaking, along with flawless styles that stay perfectly put throughout the day.

Paula Bland shares insight, 'As a nurse practitioner and a hair aesthetician deeply passionate about natural hair care, my goal was to create a product that seamlessly blends styling efficacy with nourishment. 'It's a Wrap' is a manifestation of that vision.'"

This hair foam emphasizes TLP's commitment to quality and natural beauty. Infused with essential nutrients, including conditioning honey for unparalleled moisturization, Rhodiola herb for enhanced strength and decreased frizz, and broccoli oil for added fatty acids and essential vitamins, this lightweight, non-sticky formula is perfect for creating smooth wraps, wet sets, textured styles, and molds.

Ideal for all curl types, "It's a Wrap" is particularly beneficial for weak, color-treated, or damaged hair.

Paula Blann underlines, 'At TLP, we believe in the power of natural ingredients, and 'It's a Wrap' is a manifestation of that belief. It's gratifying to witness our customers embracing their unique beauty.'"
