

Wally's Natural Ear Announces Ear Health Panel

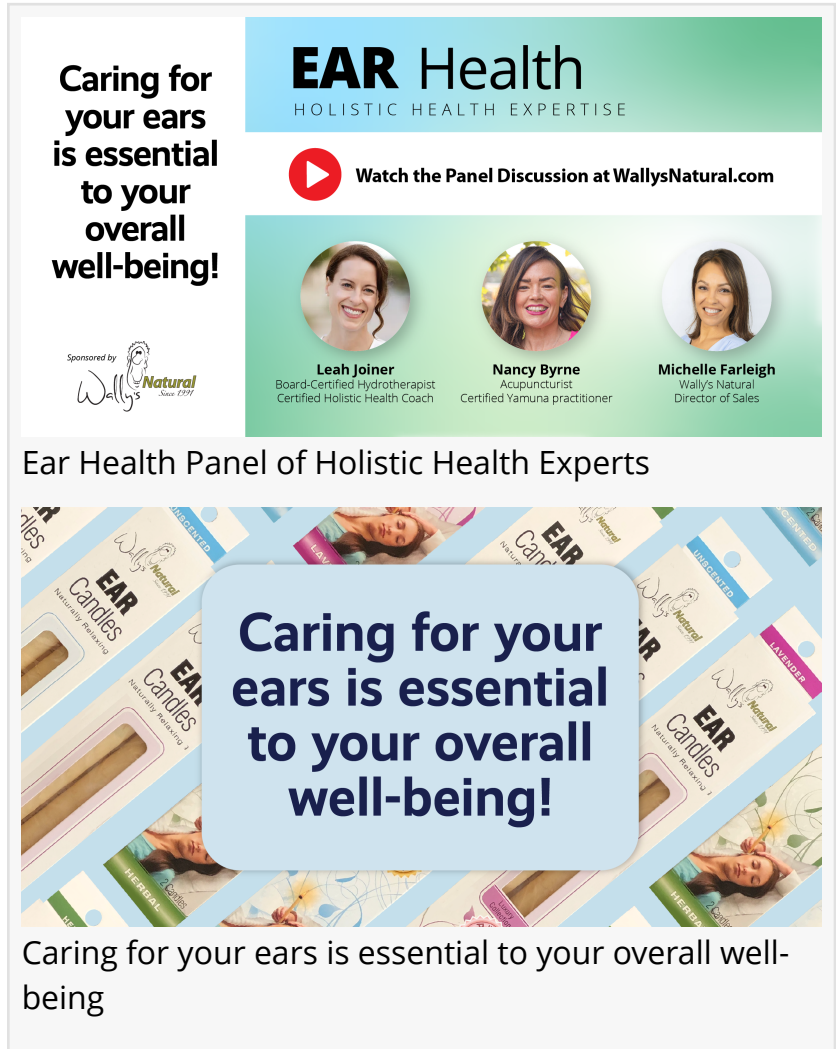

Wally's Natural discusses ear care with holistic health practitioners to help you understand the role of ears in overall health and well-being

AUBURN, CA, USA, December 12, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Wally's Natural has announced a new Ear Health Panel. The Ear Health Panel is a part of Wally's Natural mission to help Americans take better care of their ears and to understand the important role of ears in overall health and well-being.

"We founded our company in 1991 on our belief in the power of nature to promote holistic wellness," says Holly Fox, CEO of Wally's Natural, Inc. "We see a resurgence of interest in traditional methods of self-care. So we brought together a panel of experts in an on-demand video format to help educate more people on how important ear care is to your total health."

The first Ear Health Panel video includes thought leaders and practitioners from Wally's Natural home state of California. Panel members are:

- Dr. Nancy Byrne, Licensed Acupuncturist, Chinese Herbalist and Yamuna Practitioner
- Leah Joiner, Board-certified Hydrotherapist, Lymphatic Drainage Specialist and Certified Holistic Health Coach
- Michelle Farleigh, Director at Wally's Natural, Inc.
