Cosplay is simply a combination of two words – costume and play. Cosplay is referred to the activity or performance art in which cosplayers/participants wear costumes and accessories to represent a specific character. Generally, characters from movies, stories, video games, and animations are represented by the cosplayers.

Cosplay originated from Japan and has gain traction across the world. Cosplay costumes are an important part of any play or drama where artists need to disguise themselves to represent a character. The growing popularity and rising participation in plays are boosting the demand for cosplay costumes. Moreover, the growing adoption of cosplay costumes during fashion shows and photography is fueling the growth of the global cosplay costumes market.

Festivals, such as Halloween, are celebrated in countries such as the UK, the U.S., Canada, Mexico, and in some parts of Latin America. In Halloween, people dress up like ghosts to frighten the supernatural beings. It is a popular festival when the demand for cosplay costume rises. Moreover, the growing popularity of themed birthday parties, weddings, and Christmas parties is fostering the demand for cosplay costumes around the globe.

The growing participation of students in dramas/plays and dance performances in school and college functions is further propelling the demand for cosplay costumes. Furthermore, various television shows and movies based on science fiction and mythologies require the increased usage of cosplay costumes. These factors are propelling the growth of the cosplay costumes industry across the globe. The most popular fiction movies that are very much popular around the globe are the Avengers, Justice League, X-Men, and Star Wars.

The growing popularity of online sales channels is positively contributing to the market growth. The growing penetration of online platforms, such as Amazon, eBay, and Flipkart, is becoming increasingly important in modern times where most of the people are shifting toward online platforms for all their fashion needs."
