Davao City, situated in the southeastern part of Mindanao Island in the Philippines, is a well-developed and modern urban center known for its high quality of living. Often referred to as Southern Mindanao, Davao City is strategically positioned at the mouth of the Davao River, near the head of Davao Gulf. The city's ports play a vital role in handling inter-island passenger traffic and facilitating the trade of Copra, Corn (Maize), and Rice.

Functioning as an international port, Davao City is a significant exporter of Abaca, a natural fiber and a primary product cultivated in the nearby agricultural hinterland. The city takes pride in being home to Mount Apo, the highest peak in the Philippines and the highest mountain volcano in the country, making it a sought-after destination for climbers due to its elevation and significance.

As per the Notification "CERTIFICATE ESTABLISHING LICENSE TO PRACTICE MODERN MEDICINE/ALLOPATHY IN THE COUNTRY OF GRADUATION" this clears all the queries whether MBBS in Philippines is Very Much Valid"

Mrs. Suba "Director of Visayas Education"

Davao City is renowned for its diverse attractions, including the prized Philippine Orchid Species like Vanda and Sanderiana, exotic fruits, and the endangered Philippine Eagle. Davao Del Sur, the province to which the city belongs, is a melting pot of ethnic groups, each contributing to the rich cultural tapestry that has been preserved over time.

With the country's highest peak, a vibrant cultural heritage, and a commitment to technological integration while preserving local traditions, Davao is often described as having the qualities of a global city. Recognized as "The Land of Promise" in the Philippines, Davao City in Mindanao stands out as a multicultural hub, embodying a harmonious blend of tradition and modernity.
