ALPHARETTA, GEORGIA, UNITED STATES, December 20, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Sobel Properties, an innovative real estate venture established by Yamundow Camara, is garnering attention in the industry with its distinctive approach to property investment and a compelling narrative of overcoming formidable challenges.

Under Yamundow Camara's guidance, Sobel Properties specializes in acquiring distressed out-of-state properties, transforming them into fully furnished spaces that cater to a diverse clientele. This includes travel nurses, business professionals, insurance companies, and participants in the Section 8 program.

Yamundow's journey commenced in a small village in West Africa, where she emerged as the last of seven siblings. Orphaned at the tender age of two, she faced numerous hardships while being raised by her elder sister in an extended family setting. The challenges of poverty, abuse, and a sense of not belonging were constant companions during her formative years.

Despite these challenges, Yamundow excelled academically, securing scholarships that propelled her into college. Focused on mathematics and computer science, she overcame financial obstacles, writing code on borrowed laptops and navigating a tough college journey. After a successful internship and five years as a Software

Engineer, Yamundow pursued further education through master's program scholarships. Her commitment to breaking free from a challenging environment led her to the United States in 2016, supported by a presidential fellowship.

In the U.S, Yamundow's commitment to social impact soared. She founded a nonprofit organization empowering girls and women in West Africa with computer programming skills, earning her the prestigious Mandela Obama Washington Fellowship and recognition from inspiring people like the former President Barack Obama.

Motivated by a dream of providing comfortable homes, Yamundow ventured into real estate investing in 2020. Sobel Properties, under her leadership, has flourished. With 47 doors in her portfolio, Yamundow generates an impressive monthly cash flow of around $80,000.

Her recent acquisition, an eight-unit apartment complex near a hospital, stands as a testament to her commitment to community revitalization. Fully booked through platforms like Airbnb and Furnished Finder, the property now brings in a monthly cash flow of $20,000 to $22,000. "Don't wait to buy real estate, buy real estate and wait!" - Yamundow Camara's philosophy shows the importance of seizing opportunities and building wealth through real estate investments.
