About the Author

Gary Trudel is an author whose life has been shaped by resilience and a passion for poetry that began in his early teens. A survivor of Satanic Ritual Abuse and an individual in recovery from addiction, Gary's experiences have fueled his profound understanding of the human spirit.

Born in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, Gary's love for poetry has been a lifelong pursuit.

Encouraged to share his verses with the world, he self-published his work during the pandemic. Using his own resources, Gary embarked on this publishing journey, driven by a lifetime devoted to crafting verse.

Despite life's challenges, Gary embraces each day as a new adventure, finding inspiration for a fresh poem in the moments that unfold. Though his life may differ from his initial dreams, he sees each day as living a dream through his poetry.

"Welcome to My World" embodies Gary Trudel's resilience and celebrates the human experience through poetry—a testament to his unwavering dedication to the craft and an invitation for readers to discover the beauty within life's diverse tapestry.

Message from the author:

Front Cover

Back Cover

As you read my book Welcome to my world you will notice there are some mistakes. I have left the mistakes in on purpose. As my life is not perfect to be true to the essence of who I am. The mistakes in my poems are an expression of my life experiences as you read. I hope that you find a desire to come to terms with the tragedies and suffering in your own lives. My message for anyone is that no matter where you are in your life, stand tall and believe in yourself and express yourself you are worthy of happiness. Poetry is one way I feel connected to the universe, for me it's a divine calling in closing my wish for everyone is good health and happiness.

Yours sincerely,
Gary Trudel
