SEATTLE, WA, USA, December 13, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Super

Purposes™ is thrilled to launch a captivating career makeover campaign just in time for the holiday season. The campaign presents an opportunity for three lucky people to receive life-changing career coaching and kickstart a major career makeover. The aim is to help career changers find purpose-filled employment and get the salary they deserve.

The opportunity includes a chance to receive life-changing career tools, including 12 one-on-one coaching sessions with career expert Super Julie Braun, a feature article in a widely read digital publication, a premium YouTube video "Telling Your Career Story," a career spotlight reaching over 50,000 social media followers, a press release distributed to more than 200 digital publications, and exclusive access to Super Purposes™ 12-week Online Course For Career Changers. The second and third-place recipients receive one-on-one coaching sessions and access to the 12-week online course.

Last year's winner, Mary, is a success story. When reflecting on her career journey, she says, "I stayed in a job ten years too long, and that stemmed from a lack of confidence." Super Purposes™ firmly believes that luck is something you create, not find.

"Every individual deserves to discover their purpose and thrive in a career that aligns with their talents and passions," says Founder & CEO Super Julie Braun.
