The "Sweet Valley Ranch Gives Back" program was initiated by Anita Surgeon in 2021, and since then, over $180,000 has been donated to various charitable causes. Fred and Anita Surgeon feel blessed by their business careers and ownership of Sweet Valley Ranch. They are dedicated to giving back to the community, not only by creating job opportunities and providing a place for people to enjoy animals and nature but also by supporting other deserving organizations.

"We are incredibly grateful for the support and love we have received from the community. It is our mission to give back and assist organizations that are making a difference in the lives of those around us," said Fred Surgeon.

Through the Sweet Valley Ranch Gives Back program, the Surgeons aim to empower local nonprofits and help them continue their vital work. They are open to partnering with organizations that align with their mission and values. If you know of an organization that may be interested in becoming one of their partners, please encourage them to send an email to svrgivesback@surgeon-associates.com

About Sweet Valley Ranch:

Sweet Valley Ranch is a beloved destination for families and nature enthusiasts, providing a unique experience filled with animals, beautiful scenery, and fantastic attractions. It's a working farm located on 300 acres in Fayetteville, North Carolina. Sweet Valley Ranch has over 350 animals from 5 different continents. The Surgeons have relied on their roots in agriculture, vast business experience, and love for animals to develop a farm that the entire community and surrounding areas can enjoy. Sweet Valley Ranch offers three major attractions annually: Dinosaur World, Backwoods Terror Ranch, and Festival of Lights. Farm visits are available daily. Guests can discover the joy of exploring the 300-acre ranch in a golf cart or take a guided tour on the Hills & Thrills ATV experience. Families can also have their special event, birthday party, or corporate event at Sweet Valley Ranch. The farm includes three ponds, a reptile house, an exotic aviary, a gift shop, ATV trails, and much more.

With a strong emphasis on community engagement and giving back, Sweet Valley Ranch is dedicated to creating cherished memories and making a positive difference in the lives of others.
