"Holiday Season" is For Giving - Positive Music Video With Message of Hope from International Pop Artist Stefan Benz

LOS ANGELES, CA, USA, December 14, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- With TikTok and Instagram algorithms bombarding all with what to buy next, international pop sensation Stefan Benz is spreading the message of giving. "This Holiday Season it's so important to recognize the power we have. When we all come together, we can really make a difference in others' lives and I hope this song helps everyone realize that. " - Stefan Benz

The artist's new release, "Holiday Season", is catchy, the cause is good, and this young artist's message is overwhelmingly positive. With lines like, "Do some good in your neighborhood, and Have you made somebody's day? - Today you should", children and adults alike will be reminded of the true spirit of giving. "I was trying to make something fun and upbeat, but positive, that embodies what the Holiday Season should be about.

"Holiday Season" is resonating with fans across the globe as this new track charted at #73 on the iTunes Top 200 Chart and has 100s of thousands of streams on Spotify and other platforms. "To bring this track to life, I brought a bunch of my friends into the studio and played music for them...we sang, played games, roasted marshmallows, and just had a blast together" - Stefan Benz

Not content for this impactful message to live online alone, Stefan has performed and is scheduled to perform 'Holiday Season' live at multiple tree lightings and other seasonal events across the US this 'Holiday Season', as well as live on broadcast television. Stefan even surprised students of Los Osos High School in Rancho Cucamonga, California as they had learned the choreography to his song. He attended unexpectedly to perform with them at their 2023 Holiday showcase this past Friday. "I would like my fans to see the importance of how even small
