

Brandom™ Launches Market-Ready Audit for Growth-minded Founders and Entrepreneurs

Brandom™ Launches their Market-Ready Audit for experienced, growth-minded founders and entrepreneurs to gauge their readiness to grow or scale their businesses.

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA, USA, December 15, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Brandom™ Launches their Market-Ready Audit for experienced, growth-minded founders and entrepreneurs to gauge their readiness to grow or scale their businesses with marketing in the current chaotic, hard-to-master marketing today.

According to GEM Global Entrepreneurship Monitor 2023, 15 million Americans are working full-time on their own businesses and a majority of these business owners have distrust for marketing due to past poor results.

We're shining a light on holes in their brand communication so time and money are not wasted guessing at marketing. You can learn the bumpy way, or you can be certain.”

Kim Castle

Knowing that marketing is the lifeblood of every business, Brandom™ has created their Market-Ready Audit for entrepreneurs to evaluate and know for certain if they are ready to enter the market successfully. The Market-Ready Audit provides a thorough insight into a business's brand and marketing strategy. After the Market-Ready Audit is completed, the founder or entrepreneur can learn if they are ready to enter the market with marketing. If they are not ready, they receive guidance on what they need to focus on for their market to be effective.
