Antone's Marquee Sign Announcing Help Clifford Help Kids in Downtown Austin

Founded in 2001 by Blues legend and Antone's Nightclub founder, Clifford Antone, and philanthropist Robin Shivers with dear friends Cathy and Rob Lippincott, Help Clifford Help Kids has been a cornerstone in uniting the Austin community to support American YouthWorks' mission of providing young people ages 16-35 opportunities to build careers, strengthen communities, and improve the environment through education, on-the-job training, and service to the community.

We are so grateful to all the Help Clifford Help Kids donors who are supporting educational opportunities, career training, and support services for young people”

Parc Smith, AYW CEO

This year's celebration will feature a mesmerizing performance by music legends, The Temptations Review featuring the legacy of Dennis Edwards, former lead singer of The Temptations for 14 years. Edwards' gritty vocals were showcased on numerous Billboard hits, including "Psychedelic Shack," "Runaway Child," "Ball of Confusion," "I Can't Get Next to You," and "Papa was a Rolling Stone."

Emcees for the evening will be the dynamic trio of Jody Denberg, Judy Maggio, and Andy Langer, ensuring a lively and engaging atmosphere throughout the event.

In addition to the fantastic musical performances, Help Clifford Help Kids has a longstanding reputation for being a meaningful event in Austin that supports young people. Attendees can enjoy a delightful evening featuring dinner, drinks, auctions, and, most importantly, an opportunity to contribute to American YouthWorks' impactful initiatives.

"We are so grateful to all the Help Clifford Help Kids donors who are supporting educational opportunities, career training, and support services for young people," said American YouthWorks CEO, Parc Smith, "we see every day how young people make a positive difference in the community and the lives of others."

American YouthWorks, through its Texas Conservation Corps and YouthBuild programs, offers diverse groups of young adults equitable access to education, career training, and supportive services. Participants gain valuable skills in high-demand industries, addressing critical issues like building micro-homes for unhoused individuals and disaster response through FEMA deployments.
