The song, "Soldiers Prayer" is written by John Michael Ferrari, assisted by Pepper Jay, from an interesting perspective. The singer died as a teen soldier leaving his wife and unborn child. He watches over her and, after 60 years, he comes to take her "home". This spiritual patriotic song wants to "Raise our Flag with pride and grace." He has seen the "pain on a soldier's face." He is "a soldier of the U.S.A." Soldiers Prayer was recorded in October 2023 with amazing studio musicians: Drums: Evan Hutchings, Bass: Eli Beard, Electric: Troy Lancaster, Steel: Andy Ellison, Piano: Billy Nobel and Acoustic: Pat McGrath. Engineers were Jim DeBlanc on tracking, and Rob Lane on vocals and mixing.

"Bring Me Home" is from the perspective of John Michael Ferrari's last walk with his old and loved dog, RJ, knowing he had only one more day left with his friend. The talented studio musicians that brought Ferrari's arrangement to life were Drums: Lonnie Wilson, Bass: Eli Beard, Electric: Troy Lancaster, Steel: Scotty Sanders, Piano: Billy Nobel and Acoustic: Pat McGrath.

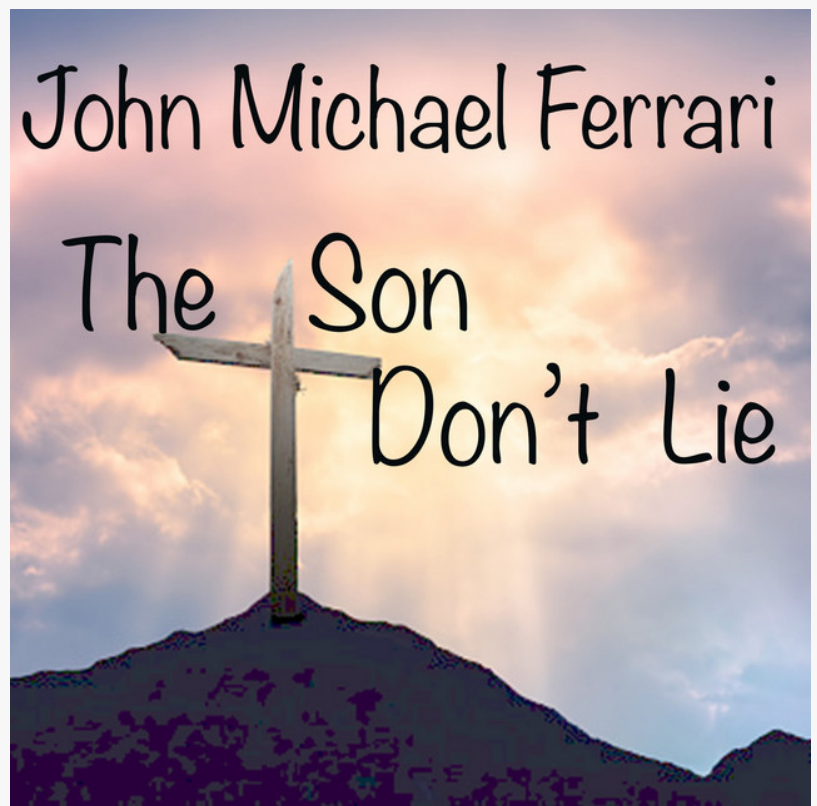

Engineers were Jim DeBlanc on tracking, and Rob Lane on vocals and David Buchanan mixing.
