

LA Alt-Rock Band Make Believe Friends Releases New Single "INTENTIONS" Along with Their New Album "MAKE BELIEVE FRIENDS"

ASHEVILLE, NC, USA, December 17, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- L.A. based Make Believe Friends drops their latest single and new album on Friday, December 15, 2023. The new single, "Intentions", is an upbeat alt-rock style song featuring Mindy Milburn on lead vocals and music by guitarist/keyboardist Laura Espinoza and lyrics by Milburn & Espinoza. Legendary Producer Ed Stasium (Talking Heads, Ramones) provided the full mix and Bernie Godwin (whose father Dito Godwin produced No Doubt), was the recording engineer.

"Intentions" releases in tandem with Make Believe Friends' first album to be called by the band's name: "Make Believe Friends".

Make Believe Friends - "Intentions"

"The catchy 'Intentions' opens Make Believe Friends' new self-titled debut album, with struggling relationship lyrics in parallel to current world issues. Mindy Milburn powerfully declares, 'I'm walking away' and Laura Espinoza echoes that strength with her fuzz guitar in the bridge. 'Intentions' is followed by seven equally great original compositions and an edgy cover of Blondie's 'Rapture' from this talented group who also perform as the Blondie tribute band, Heart of Blonde. Intentions is in my Top 5 Fabulous Albums of 2023". - Warren Kurtz, Goldmine

The album contains the following songs:

- 1) Intentions
- 2) Haunt Me
- 3) Scream
- 4) Rapture (Blondie Cover)

- 5) Somewhere There Forever (ft. Dale Bozzio of Missing Persons)
- 6) The Truth
- 7) Thank the Academy
- 8) Follow Me to the Sun
- 9) An Act of Love
