In this case she reviewed the actual location and large rock Danny would sit on next to an elementary school. In an opening in the woods. All the kids would gather around at night or during the day to hear the soulful songs Danny would strum on his six-string Martin guitar. Nilda also made it a point to study Dan's clothing shirts, jeans, belts, sunglasses, even his actual acoustic guitar was utilized in the re-creation of an exacting replica in bronze of "RIO"
