

Optimal training access with an absolute minimum of administration is available with the Enroll Now - Pay Later program

Sofema Online provides a method to support its clients in the most convenient way.

SOFIA, BULGARIA , December 18, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Sofema Online (SOL) at www.sofemaonline.com is committed to offering clients accessible online training solutions. The Enroll Now - Pay Later program is a method to support clients in the most convenient way.

Since its inception in 2013, Sofema Online has been a leader in delivering specialized EASA-compliant regulatory online training courses, tailored to the dynamic needs of the aviation industry. Focusing on regulatory and vocational training, SOL has developed a platform offering over 330 courses, establishing itself as a trusted training provider.

The results of over a decade of excellence in online regulatory training are more accessible for business clients. Optimal training access is achieved with minimal administration – it takes only one email to enroll the entire staff in 330+ Courses, Packages, and Diplomas.

The Enroll Now - Pay Later program offers a solution for all Corporate Clients. This program was introduced following client requests for easier enrollment and to maximize available enrollment discounts. Details are available on this page

The Enroll Now - Pay Later program is designed to enhance the accessibility of SOL's training portfolio for corporate clients. The program allows immediate enrollment into any course or package, facilitating continuous learning without upfront payment constraints. A monthly discounted proforma Invoice is provided with a 30-day payment term, underscoring SOL's commitment to supporting global aviation personnel's professional development.
